

How to Access the NTD Online Reporting System

This guide provides an overview of how transit industry users can access the NTD online reporting tool. Users must have an existing NTD account in order to log into the reporting system. If you require access as a new user, please contact your agency's designated User Manager to create your account prior to using this guide.

NTD Program Website

The NTD program website is <https://www.transit.dot.gov/ntd>.

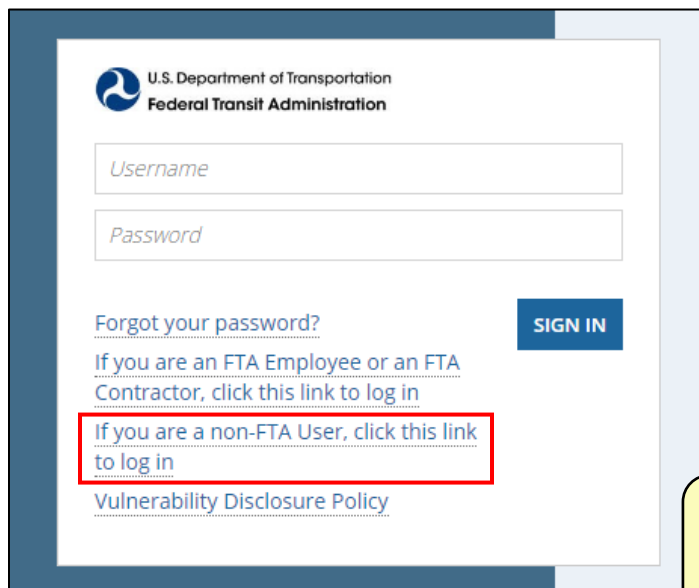

The website offers a repository of NTD-related guidance, resources, and trainings. The lefthand navigation pane provides links to reporting and policy resources, including policy manuals, annual data publications, the NTD glossary, and Frequently Asked Questions.

- Select "Reporting Login" at the bottom of the navigation pane.
- Open the "NTD Reporting Tool" link.

NTD Reporting Tool 2.0

The NTD online reporting system is <https://faces.fta.dot.gov/suite/>.

Review the privacy disclaimer on the home page, then select "I Agree."

- On the Appian login page (shown left), select the link "If you are a non-FTA User, click this link to log in."
- Selecting this link will redirect you to Login.gov, which allows you to access online federal reporting systems.

Note! Do not enter your credentials or reset your password on this page; these options are retired and will be removed.

Sign in via Login.gov

- If you have an existing account with Login.gov, enter your email address and password.
- If you need to reset your password, select “Forgot your password?” at the bottom of this page. Enter your email on the next page, and Login.gov will send you instructions to reset your password.
- After logging in, you will be directed to the TriAD home page, where you can access NTD.

Note! The email you use to sign into Login.gov must be the same email that is associated with your NTD account.

TrIAD is using Login.gov to allow you to sign in to your account safely and securely.
