REGION 10 BULLETIN NO: 2010-60

Subject: NTI Understanding ADA Course

Program Area: Civil Rights Training

Date: August 10, 2010

The National Transit Institute (NTI) will be sponsoring a FREE course ($0 for consultants and contractors) “Understanding Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA)” in Pittsfield, MA on September 14, 2010; and Seaside, OR on October 24, 2010.

This course is intended for people who work at a transit agency or provide transit service, those who manage or operate paratransit services, and Federal, State, and local representatives who work with the ADA community. It is recommended that you complete this course before attending other ADA-related courses.

The goal of this course is to teach transit professionals the legal background of ADA and paratransit requirements.

Topics include:

- ADA legal requirements that apply to public and private transportation related entities
- 14 service provisions documented in 49 CFR Part 37, Subpart G
- Requirements to determine if a public or private entity must provide complementary paratransit service
- Criteria for complementary paratransit service
- Requirements for existing and new transportation facilities
- Compliance and enforcement responsibilities of FTA, DOT, and DOJ
- Responsibilities and compliance procedures for public and private entities
- Enforcement and investigation processes, including hearings, decisions, and notices

The course is facilitated by industry professionals with extensive experience in paratransit services and the ADA.

If you are interested in attending, please follow this link
