REGION 10 BULLETIN NO: 2012-02

Subject: NTI Management of Transit Construction Projects

Program Area: Training

Date: January 25, 2012

The National Transit Institute (NTI) will be presenting a FREE course ($450 for consultants and contractors) entitled "Management of Transit Construction Projects" course in several locations:

Apr 24-26	Montpelier, VT
May 15-17	San Antonio, TX
May 23-25	Seattle, WA
Jun 6-8	Phoenix, AZ

Managers, planners, and engineers involved in all phases of the management and control of the Federal Transit Administration (FTA)-funded projects. This includes grantee department or division managers responsible for major and non-major capital project development encompassing the planning, design, construction, and post-construction phases; directors of grantee consultant teams participating in the management of a major project; and managers of FTA Project Management Oversight (PMO) consultants. FTA grantees are responsible for managing and directing federally-funded projects.

Organizations and programs must be in place to address the specific needs of each grantee and each project. The federal transit laws require a grant applicant for a major capital investment project to prepare and carry out a Project Management Plan (PMP) approved by the FTA. This course addresses the basics of good project management for transit projects, with specific emphasis on the requirements that are presented in the report, Project and Construction Management Guidelines 2003 Update. The 2003 guidelines reflect many changes in national policies, and project and construction management involves many new techniques and approaches. This course uses the guidelines to teach the process of good project management to grantees with major capital projects who are required to implement Project Management Plans, as well as grantees with smaller capital projects.
