

FTA

FEDERAL TRANSIT ADMINISTRATION

Shared Mobility, Automation, Research

Gwo-Wei Torng, FTA Office of Mobility Innovation

May 10, 2019

U.S. Department of Transportation
Federal Transit Administration

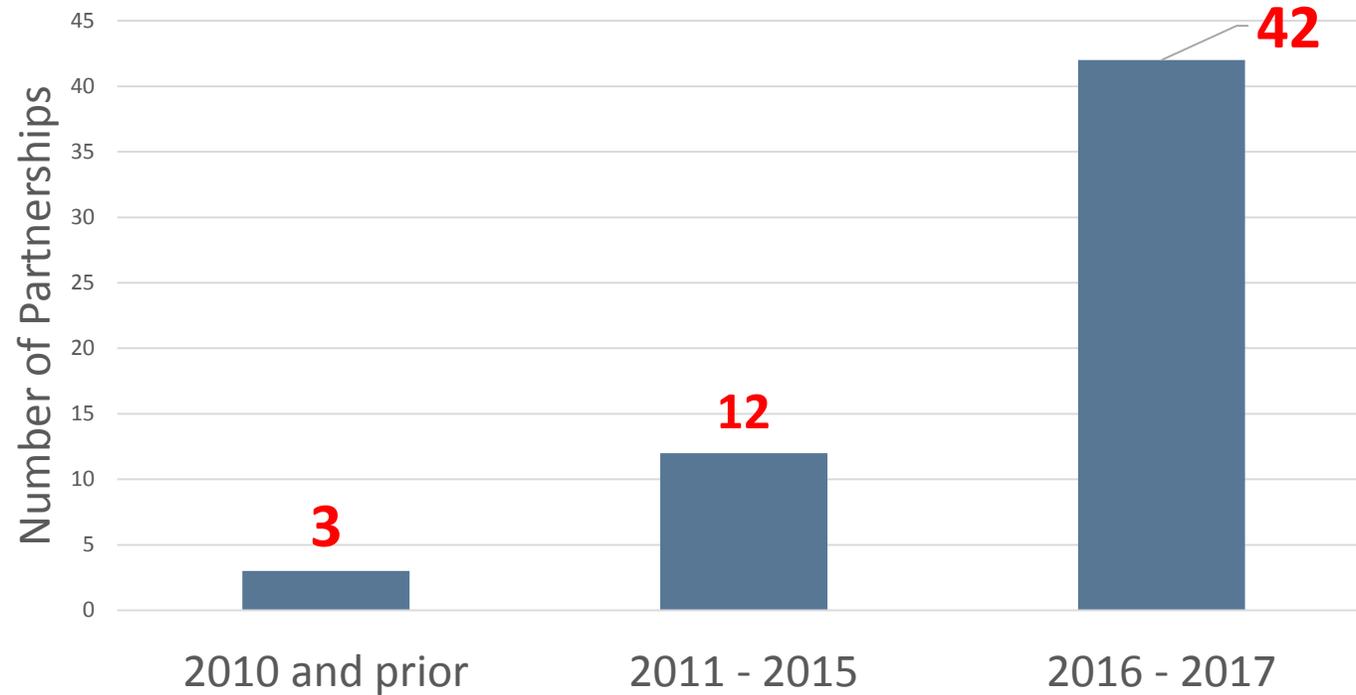

APRIL

MASSACHUSETTS BAY TRANSPORTATION AUTHORITY, BOSTON, MA | PHOTO: COURTESY OF KEOLIS NORTH AMERICA

WHERE PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION GOES
COMMUNITY GROWS

Transit Agency and Private Mobility Partnerships

Partnerships Formed between Transit Agencies and Private Mobility Solutions

Mobility on Demand (MOD)

MOD is a vision for an integrated network of safe, carefree, and reliable transportation options that are available to ALL

FTA Approach to Mobility Innovation

Explore emerging technology solutions and new business approaches

Enable public transportation industry to adopt innovative mobility partnerships and solutions

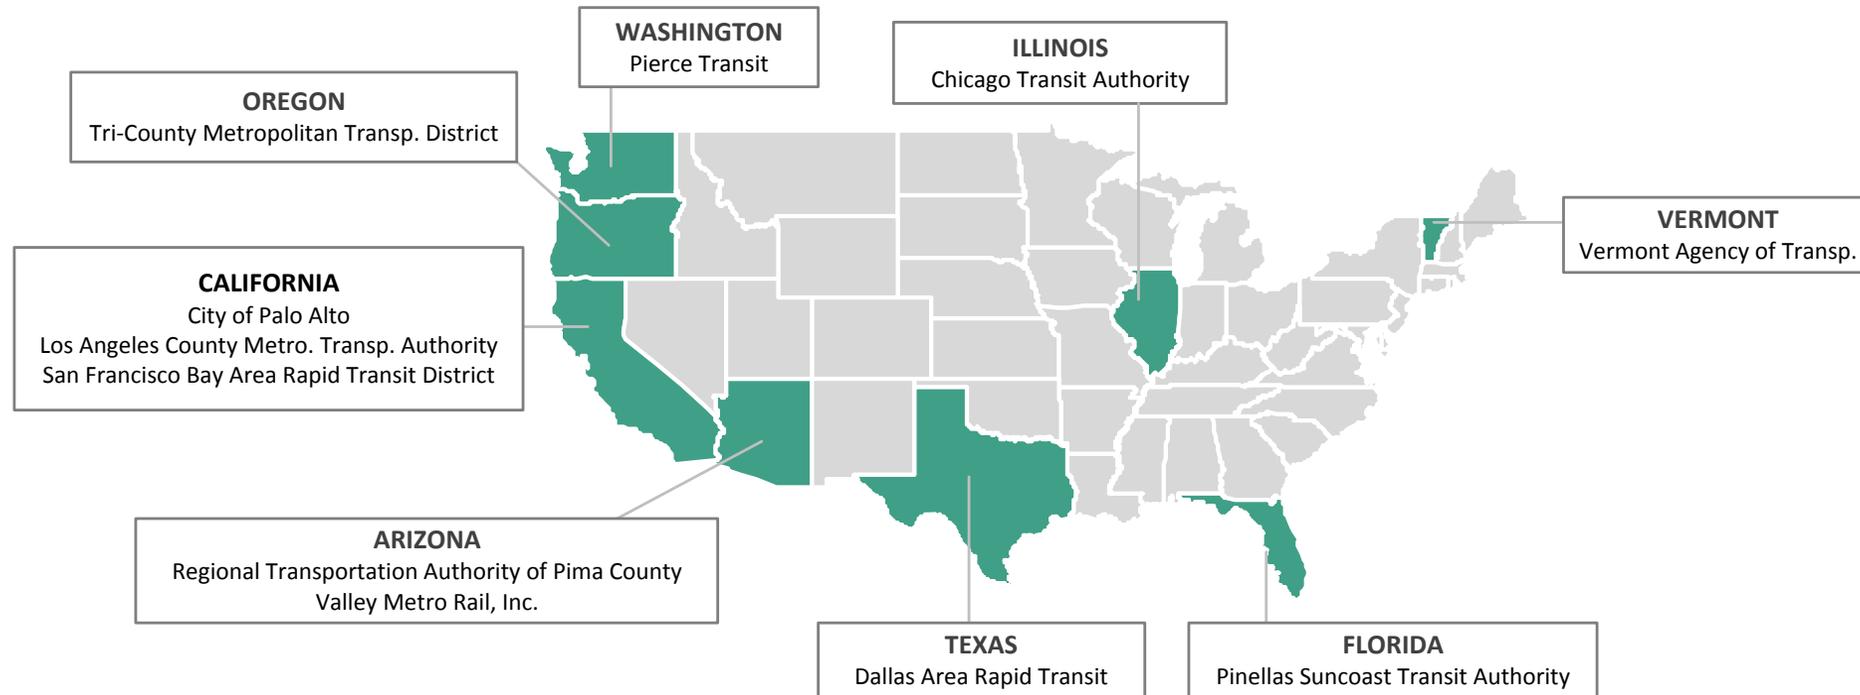

Facilitate widespread deployment of proven mobility solutions and partnerships

Review and Initial Findings

2016 MOD SANDBOX

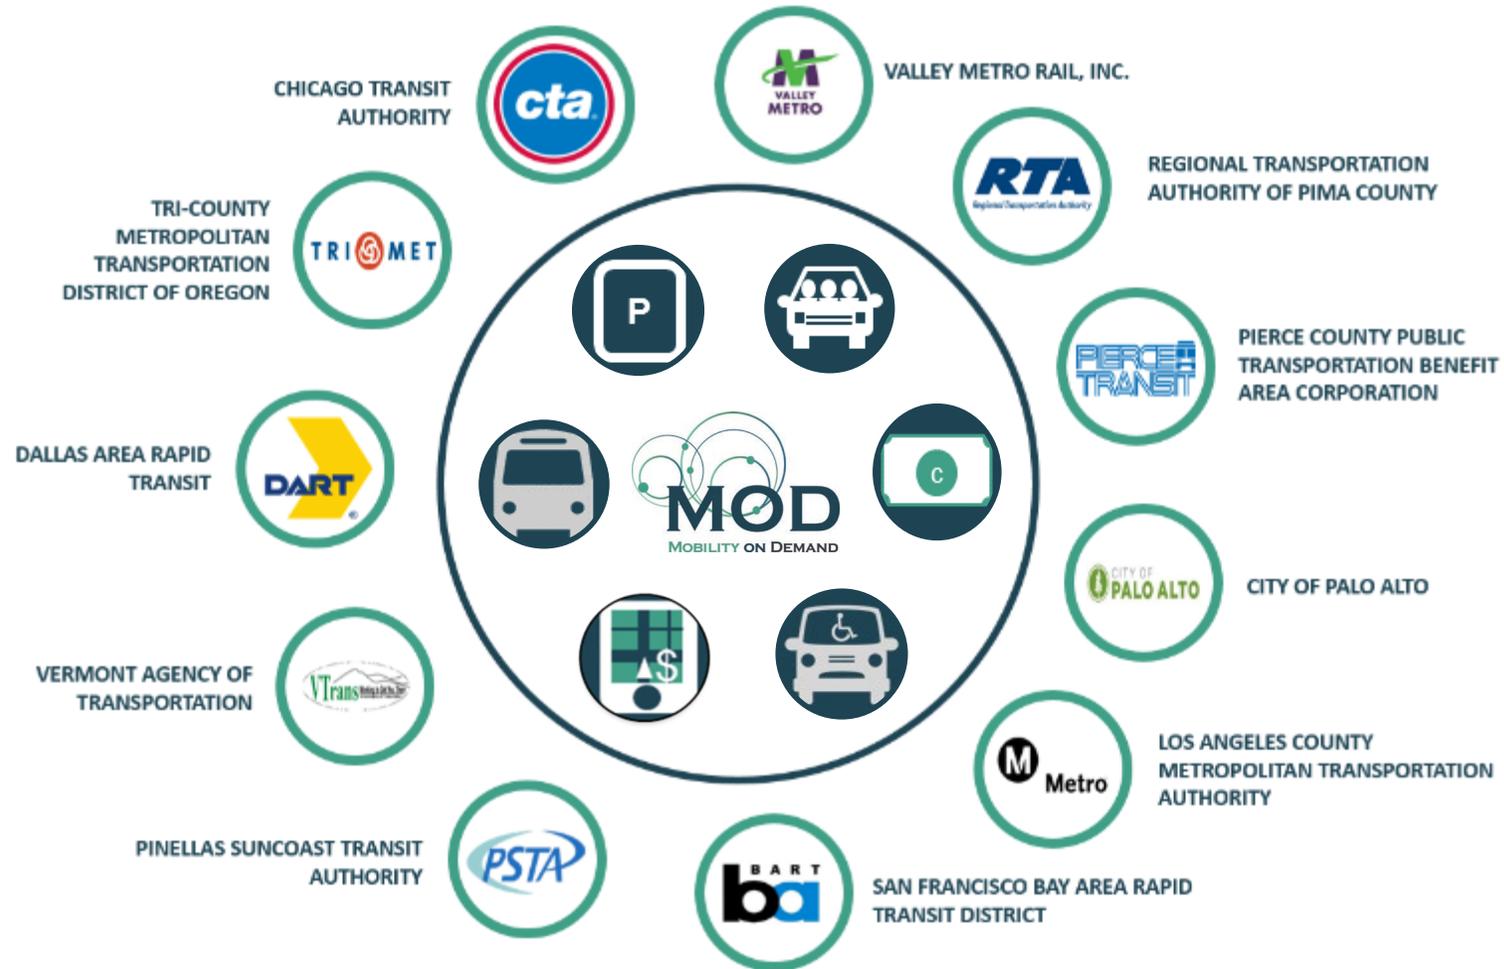

2016 MOD Sandbox Projects

Results coming soon –“out of the box”

11 Projects: $7,931,080

2016 Sandbox Projects At a Glance

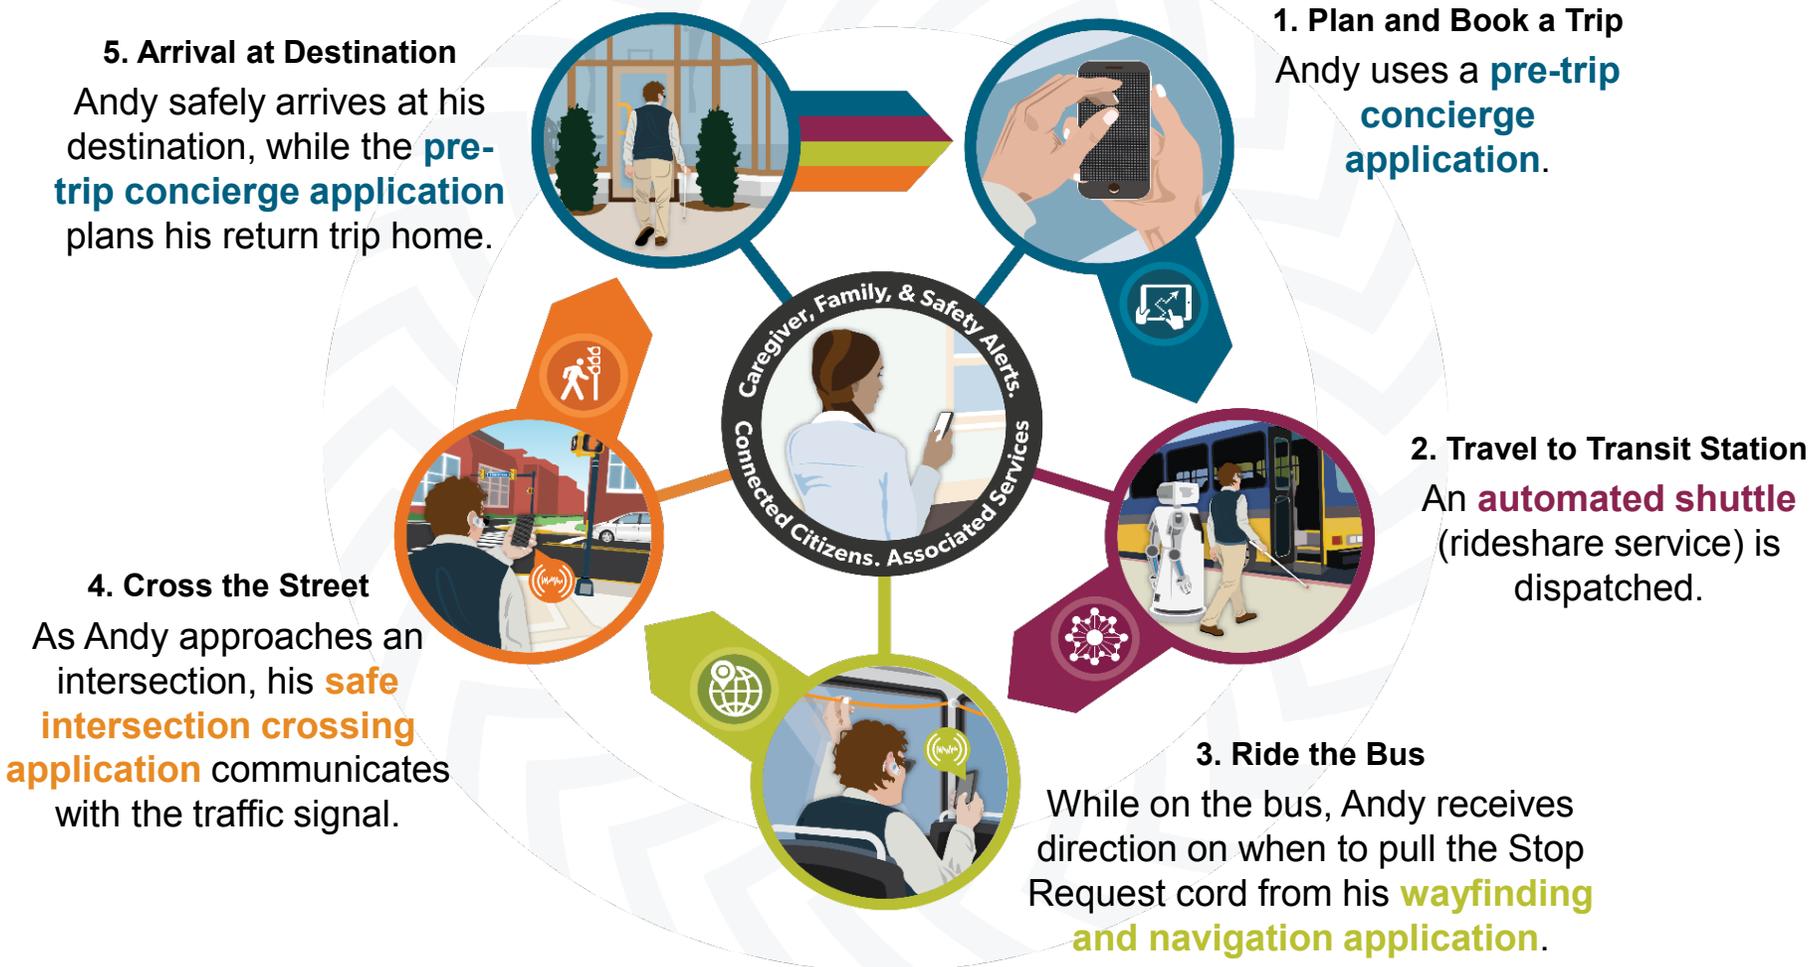

Advancing Complete Trips for All

INTEGRATED MOBILITY INNOVATION

The Complete Trip

FTA Integrated Mobility Innovation

IMI Demonstration Program NOFO

- How much funding is available: $15M total
- What it will do: fund mobility innovations in three areas – (a) mobility on demand; (b) transit automation; and (c) mobility payment integration;
- How do proponents apply: applicants may apply for any one or combination of the 3 categories shown above
- Who can apply: providers of public transportation, public agencies, state/local government, tribal entities
- NOFO opening/closing date: May 8, 2019/August 6, 2019
- More information: Dr. Google: FTA IMI; FTA STAR; FTA MOD

All progress occurs because people dare to be different.

Lucky Numbers 40, 54, 33, 19, 29, 21