

CCAM Member Organizations

The table below lists the Coordinating Council on Access and Mobility's (CCAM) member organizations and briefly explains how each organization contributes to the fulfillment of the Council's vision of equal access to coordinated transportation for all Americans.

Member Organization Alphabetical Order	Mission	Connection to the CCAM Description of how transportation contributes to the mission of the member organization	Impact of Coordination Description of how transportation coordination may improve the member organization's ability to serve its constituents and execute on its mission	Relevant Agencies Agencies within the member organization that fund transportation services for targeted populations	Sample Relevant Programs Selection of programs within the member organization that can fund transportation services	Webpage Link
Department of Agriculture	Provide leadership on food, agriculture, natural resources, rural development, nutrition, and related issues based on public policy, the best available science, and effective management	Transportation connects people to nutrition services and improves the quality of life in rural America by increasing access to communities. USDA funds transportation through aid to states and local communities.	Coordinating transportation services may increase the affordability and accessibility of transportation for rural Americans and other USDA beneficiaries.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Food and Nutrition Service</li> <li>• Rural Development</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Supplementation Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)</li> <li>• Community Facilities Direct Loan &amp; Grant Program</li> </ul>	USDA Webpage
Department of Education	Promote student achievement and preparation for global competitiveness by fostering educational excellence and ensuring equal access	Transportation services enable student achievement by promoting equal access to education. ED programs fund transportation services that connect constituents to education opportunities.	Coordinating with other federal agencies may increase the availability of transportation to schools and educational services.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Office of Elementary and Secondary Education</li> <li>• Office of Special Education and Rehabilitative Programs</li> <li>• Office of Innovation and Improvement</li> <li>• Rehabilitation Services Administration</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Special Education Grants to States</li> <li>• Special Education Grants for Infants and Toddlers</li> <li>• Vocational Rehabilitation Grants to States</li> </ul>	ED Webpage
Department of Health and Human Services	Enhance and protect the health and well-being of all Americans by providing for effective health and human services and fostering advances in medicine, public health, and social services	Transportation can improve health outcomes by connecting patients to care. HHS increases access to essential services by funding non-emergency medical transportation and other transportation services for eligible beneficiaries.	Coordinated transportation can magnify the impact of HHS programs by expanding access to services for targeted beneficiaries.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Administration for Community Living</li> <li>• Administration for Children and Families</li> <li>• Centers for Disease Control</li> <li>• Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services</li> <li>• Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration</li> <li>• Health Resources and Services Administration</li> <li>• Indian Health Service</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Medicaid</li> <li>• Head Start</li> <li>• Block Grants for Prevention and Treatment of Substance Abuse</li> <li>• Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP)</li> </ul>	HHS Webpage

Member Organization Alphabetical Order	Mission	Connection to the CCAM Description of how transportation contributes to the mission of the member organization	Impact of Coordination Description of how transportation coordination may improve the member organization's ability to serve its constituents and execute on its mission	Relevant Agencies Agencies within the member organization that fund transportation services for targeted populations	Sample Relevant Programs Selection of programs within the member organization that can fund transportation services	Webpage Link
Department of Housing and Urban Development	Create strong, sustainable, inclusive communities and quality affordable homes for all	Transportation fosters inclusive communities by connecting individuals and improving access to supportive services. HUD builds strong communities by funding transportation for targeted populations in underserved areas.	Transportation coordination can allow HUD to make efficient use of existing transportation resources and better serve targeted populations (e.g. low-income families, persons experiencing homelessness, individuals living with HIV/AIDS, etc.)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Office of Community Planning and Development</li> <li>• Office of Housing</li> <li>• Office of Public and Indian Housing</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Indian Housing Block Grant</li> <li>• Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS</li> <li>• Indian Community Development Block Grant</li> </ul>	HUD Webpage
Department of the Interior	Protect and manage the Nation's natural resources and cultural heritage; provide scientific and other information about those resources; and honor the Nation's trust responsibilities or special commitments to American Indians, Alaska Natives, and affiliated island communities	Transportation improves American Indians' access to education opportunities. To this end, DOI administers programs that provide and fund transportation for American Indian families.	Federal coordination can make transportation more accessible and affordable, allowing DOI to better serve its American Indian constituency.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Bureau of Indian Education</li> <li>• Bureau of Indian Affairs</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Indian Education Assistance to Schools</li> <li>• Indian Child and Family Education</li> <li>• Indian Schools Student Transportation</li> </ul>	DOI Webpage
Department of Justice	Enforce the law and defend the interests of the United States according to the law; ensure public safety against threats foreign and domestic; provide federal leadership in preventing and controlling crime; seek just punishment for those guilty of unlawful behavior; and ensure fair and impartial administration of justice for all Americans	Transportation provides opportunities for juveniles in crisis— helping youth and their families access vital services; reduce violent and drug-related crime; support law enforcement; and combat victimization. It is essential that transportation be equally accessible to all Americans.	Transportation coordination can allow DOJ to improve outcomes for at-risk youth, reduce opioid misuse, and help break the cycle of incarceration for drug addiction and violence through efficient use of existing transportation resources to better serve targeted populations.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Bureau of Justice Assistance</li> <li>• Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Comprehensive Opioid Abuse Program</li> <li>• Veterans Treatment Court Program</li> <li>• Juvenile Drug Treatment Court Program</li> <li>• Youth Mentoring Program</li> </ul>	DOJ Webpage
Department of Labor	Foster, promote, and develop the welfare of the wage earners, job seekers, and retirees of the United States; improve working conditions; advance opportunities for profitable employment; and assure work-related benefits and rights	Transportation advances opportunities for employment by connecting people to jobs and training services. The DOL administers programs that provide transportation to employment services and job training for individuals of low income.	By coordinating transportation services with other federal agencies, DOL can more efficiently reach a broader constituency.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Employment and Training Administration</li> <li>• Veterans' Employment and Training Service</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Veterans' Employment Program</li> <li>• Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act Adult Program</li> <li>• Job Corps</li> <li>• Work Incentive Grants</li> </ul>	DOL Webpage

Member Organization Alphabetical Order	Mission	Connection to the CCAM Description of how transportation contributes to the mission of the member organization	Impact of Coordination Description of how transportation coordination may improve the member organization's ability to serve its constituents and execute on its mission	Relevant Agencies Agencies within the member organization that fund transportation services for targeted populations	Sample Relevant Programs Selection of programs within the member organization that can fund transportation services	Webpage Link
National Council on Disability	Be a trusted advisor, in collaboration with people with disabilities to the President; the Congress; federal entities; state, tribal communities, and local governments; and other entities and organizations	Transportation is key to independent living and community engagement for all people, including people with disabilities. The NCD advises the Federal Government regarding disability policies, programs, procedures, and practices that enhance equal opportunity.	NCD's perspective and expertise enhances the CCAM's ability to address the needs of people with disabilities.	The NCD does not fund transportation services for targeted populations.	N/A	NCD Webpage
Social Security Administration	Promote the economic security of the Nation's people through compassionate and vigilant leadership in shaping and managing America's social security programs	Transportation promotes the basic well-being of people with disabilities, people of lower income, and older adults. The SSA supports these groups by providing financial protection and connecting them to essential services.	The SSA can enhance federal coordination by providing insight into the broad range of benefits available to CCAM's targeted populations.	The SSA does not fund transportation services for targeted populations.	N/A	SSA Webpage
Department of Transportation	Serve the United States by ensuring a fast, safe, efficient, accessible and convenient transportation system that meets our vital national interests and enhances the quality of life of the American people, today and into the future	Transportation serves a vital national interest by connecting people to their communities. DOT administers grant programs that fund transit services and capital projects that increase access to transportation for all Americans.	Promoting coordination among federal funding recipients can help increase efficiency by reducing duplication and overlap of transportation services.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Federal Transit Administration</li> <li>Federal Highway Administration</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Formula Grants for Rural Areas</li> <li>Enhanced Mobility of Seniors and Individuals with Disabilities</li> <li>Urbanized Area Formula Program</li> <li>Capital Investment Grants</li> </ul>	DOT Webpage
Department of Veterans Affairs	Fulfill President Lincoln's promise "To care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow, and his orphan" by serving and honoring the men and women who are America's Veterans	Transportation serves America's Veterans and their families by connecting them to the benefits and support they have earned through their service. The VA both funds and provides this transportation for eligible beneficiaries.	The VA can expand access to benefits by coordinating transportation services with other federal agencies.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Veterans Health Administration</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Homeless Providers Grant and Per Diem Program</li> <li>Veterans Transportation Program</li> <li>Veterans State Adult Day Health Care</li> </ul>	VA Webpage